Mentz Foundations Building New Facility in Union Corporate Center

Construction continues on the newest addition to Union Corporate Center, Mentz Foundations. Mentz Foundations, founded in 1995 by Scott and Lisa Mentz, currently is located in the North Loop Industrial Park at the intersection of Williams Drive and Cedar Court.

With continued residential, commercial and industrial growth in Union and Franklin County, Mentz Foundations has outgrown their current facility and purchased six acres in the Union Corporate Center. The new facility offers additional office space as well as a larger area for equipment storage. In addition, the new location offers opportunity for further expansion in the future.

Mentz Foundations provides employment for 40 people and specializes in concrete foundations and retaining walls.

Union's "Premier" Industrial Park

Union Corporate Center, located 3.5 miles west of Interstate 44 and ½ mile south of Highway 50 has 170 available acres and is fully served by natural gas, electric and municipal utilities. A 20,000 square foot speculative building is also available. Union Corporate Center has been called St. Louis' "premier" industrial park by Economic Development officials at AmerenUE and the St. Louis Regional Chamber and Growth Association.

Union Corporate Center is the home to several businesses and industries; Corro-Tech, Union Machinery, Frueh Services, Weber Construction, Missouri Natural Gas, Friction Technologies, Carson's Furniture Warehouse and a new industry to be announced in the near future.
